Ballimony Cottage can be reached from the ferry terminal at Port Askaig by heading towards Bridgend and taking the turning to Portnahaven. Once at Portnahaven turn right past the small church on the right and head out of the village. After a few miles take a right turn signed Octofad, turn next right. Ballimony Cottage is approached down an incline and across a cattle grid, the name is on the gate. From the ferry terminal at Port Ellen head towards Bridgend and follow instructions above. The same applies if you arrive at Glenegedale airport. On leaving the airport turn left towards Bowmore and onto Bridgend. Ballimony Cottage is approximately three miles from shops, pubs and other services.

Ballimony Cottage is available to rent all year round on a Saturday to Saturday basis although this is flexible where possible. Short breaks are available. It is requested that you arrive at the Cottage sometime after 3.00pm and depart no later than 10.30am. If the Saturday to Saturday let and times cause difficulties please get in touch to discuss your needs. A welcome tray of home baking and refreshments will be waiting for you on your arrival. Groceries can also be purchased and delivered to the Cottage in time for your arrival if required. Finally we welcome well behaved doggy friends.
